

I don't have an answer yet
But I sometimes secretly want my parents to die
I picture all these catastrophes they can potentially get into
And how I would react
It must be so terrifying to me
That I have to practice dealing with it
In case it happens
When it happens
But that doesn't answer why I kinda wish it to be
Because I live my life in a childish jail
And their death just might set me free
I just can't believe that that what it would take
It has to be that I can grow and keep them around
Appreciate them
Instead of needing them
